GENERATIONS INSURANCE GROUP RECEIVED AN AWARD AND RAISED OVER $6,000 FOR AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

Warren, OH – August 7, 2014 – Warren business Generations Insurance Group took part in the largest “Relay For Life” in the state this year and raised a total of $6,565. Generations, who participated on the “gold team,” placed 14th out of 85 teams in raising the most funds in the state of Ohio, and finished 37th among all participants. In addition, Generations Insurance was awarded “Best Educational Program” and received a 1st Place trophy in the “Children’s Games” event.

The annual “Relay For Life” is an overnight community fundraiser for the American Cancer Society where teams of people camp out and take turns walking for pledges. Funds contribute to research that improve cancer patients’ quality of life through lifestyle changes and new therapies.

“Relay For Life is important to our community and communities around the country,” says Generations Insurance Group manager Daniel Sutherin. “We all want to see people healthy and cancer free.”

Eight local residents operate Generations Insurance Group in Warren. Along with their sister company, Sutherin-Melling Insurance Co. in Solon, and their other partners across Ohio and Kentucky, the business has a combined staff of 41, serving over 7000 customers. Sutherin-Melling was founded in 1924 by Francis J. “SU” Sutherin and offers “top-quality service with an old-fashioned flare” at both the Solon and Warren locations. The company celebrates its 90th birthday this year. Dan states, “I attribute our longevity and success to the example my grandfather set when he started this company in 1924.” Generations Insurance is a key sponsor of the “Back at The Pack” and “River Rock at the Amp” Concert Series.

Generations Insurance Group offers Personal Insurance (Auto, Boat, Home, Health, Life, etc.), Commercial Insurance (Corporate Packages, Liability, Retirement Plans, etc.) and Medical Group Benefits. Generations Insurance takes pride in being a local agency who provides coverage and protection should something unexpected happen, and values being community-oriented.
